FRATERNITY ROW

Mr. Walter Ferguson, of Covington, was a guest at the Pi Kappa Alpha house during the week-end.

Miss Helen Twomey, of Cincinnati, national inspector of Alpha Delta Theta sorority, spent the week-end in Lexington as guest of the Alpha and Beta chapters.

Several members of Kappa Gamma are planning to attend the national convention to be held last week in July and the first week in August in Oakland, Cal. Among them are: Misses Helen Van Derveer, Josephine Skain, Curtis Buehler, of Lexington; Louise Jefferson, of Louisville, and Marian Young, of Mt. Sterling.

Messrs. Thomas Deane and Fred McLane, of Newport, were the guests of Mr. Carl Ebert at the Phi Kappa Tau house over the week-end.

Mr. Ambrose Stephenson, of Winchester, was a guest at the Kappa Sigma house for the week-end.

Miss Mary Brown, of London, is visiting the Alpha Xi Delta's at their chapter house on S. Limestone.

Mr. Robert Ciemb, superintendent of public schools in Bedford, Ky., spent the past week-end at the Sigma Chi house.

Misses Stelle Kelsall, and Martha and Elizabeth Wheeler, of Louisville, are guests of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Misses Corinne Cowgill and Bena Lotta attended the dinner-dance given by the Delta Zeta chapter at the University of Cincinnati, last Friday evening.

Delta Zeta entertained their mothers with a tea at the chapter house on East Maxwll, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Rebecca Smith, formerly of Paducah, Ky., now of Christian College, Fort Worth, Texas, was a guest of Kappa Delta for the Phi Beta Kappa initiation.

Kappa Delta Tea

Epsilon Omega of Kappa Delta entertained with a delightful tea on Saturday in the chapter house on Stone avenue, in honor of three of its members who received the Phi Beta Kappa key last week.

The guests of honor were: Misses Rebecca Smith, of Paducah, teacher at Texas Christian University, and graduate of the university in 1916; Mary Agnes Gordon, graduate in the class of 1925, who is working on her master's degree in psychology; and Frances Lee, prominent on the campus and one of the two undergraduate girls to have gained this coveted honor.

Those in the receiving line were Miss Anne Louise Singleton, president of the chapter, Miss Smith, Miss Gordon, Miss Lee, Mrs. T. A. Stebbins, and Miss Margie McLaughlin, faculty advisor for the fraternity. The decorations were spring flowers, which were placed throughout the house and on the tea table.

About seventy-five guests including alumni, patronesses, fraternity representatives and house mothers called during the afternoon.

Pi Kappa Alpha Banquet

Alumni and active members of the Pi Kappa Alpha in Kentucky and Tennessee and fraternity officers, alumni and active members of other chapters in various states, held a founder's day banquet in the Phoenix hotel on Thursday evening.

Interesting toasts were given by representatives of the various chapters. Attractive menu cards bore the pictures of the three chapter houses in Kentucky and the program for the evening.

On Thursday afternoon, members of the Transylvania and University of Kentucky chapters, together with visiting members, went to Georgetown, where they conferred a charter on the Seabird club, thus reviving the old Alpha Lambda chapter there.

Phi Beta Kappa Reception

After the installation ceremonies for the Alpha of Kentucky chapter of Phi Beta Kappa fraternity, held Friday afternoon at the president's home, President and Mrs. McVey entertained with a reception in honor of the visiting Phi Beta Kappas and the initiates.

The house was decorated with plants and flowers; the host and hostess received in the spacious drawing room and in the line with them were Dr. Oscar M. Voorhies, secretary of the United chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, and Mrs. Voorhies; Dr. Edwin Mims, of Vanderbilt University, who delivered the address to the new chapter; Bishop Lewis W. Burton, president of the Blue Grass Association of Phi Beta Kappa, and Mrs. Burton.

Assisting in entertaining were the officers of the Alpha of Kentucky chapter and their wives, Dr. Glanville Terrell, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Miner, Mr. William Ray Allen, Dr. and Mrs. L. V. McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Holmes Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Galloway, Prof. and Mrs. George K. Brady, Dean Charles Turk, Mr. Jesse E. Adams, Dean Virginia Franke, Mrs. Ezra Gillis; Mrs. McVey's mother, Mrs. Asa Jewell; Miss Rachelle Shacklette.

The table in the dining room was beautiful with flowers and candles and Mrs. J. B. Miner presided over the coffee service.

About eighty guests were present, making a most distinguished group.

Professor Sax Entertains

Mr. Carol Sax entertained in honor of Dr. James Henry Hamilton, of Greensburg, Ind., the guest of Dean and Mrs. C. R. Melcher, with a delightful party Saturday evening.

The first of the evening's pleasures was dinner at the Lafayette hotel. This was followed by a theatre party at the Roman theatre to see the play, "The Pigeon."

Dr. Hamilton is an educator, lecturer and writer and has traveled abroad a great deal, investigating social conditions in Switzerland, and other countries. During the World War he saw service in France with the American Red Cross and has been engaged in the study of the social life among the Eskimos of Alaska, and Indians of the Southwest. During the serving of the dinner the guests had the pleasure of hearing some of the incidents of his work and travel.

Among the guests were Dr. Hamilton, Dean and Mrs. C. R. Melcher, Miss Ruth Melcher, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, Dean Virginia Franke, Messrs. William Hillen, W. S. Hamilton, of Louisville; Louis Shackelford, Horace Miller Clay.

Alpha Gamma Delta Tea

Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity entertained with a tea at the chapter house, Thursday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Lottie Belle Crow Porter, president of Gamma province, who is inspecting the chapter.

The house and tea table were fragrant with flowers. A delicious salad course was served. The guests were received by Mrs. Lottie Belle Crow Porter, Virginia Kelley, president; and Mrs. M. Johns, house mother.

About seventy-five guests, including alumnae, patronesses, two girls from each fraternity on the campus, and all of the house mothers of the fraternities were present.

Phi Delt Banquet

Kentucky Epsilon of Phi Delta Theta entertained with their annual founder's day banquet, Monday evening, March 15, in the private dining room of the Lafayette hotel. The table was beautifully decorated in azure and argent, the fraternity colors.

James Park, class of '15, Fayette county attorney, presided as toastmaster. Interesting speeches were given by Dr. J. T. C. Noe and Judge Lyman Chalkley for the alumni, William Turk, for the chapter, and Louis Cox, for the freshmen.

Alumni and visitors present were: James Park, Dr. J. T. C. Noe, Judge Lyman Chalkley, W. K. Massie, John Jewell, Robert Jewell, Headly Shouse, Cromwell Allen, Robert Lawless, O. F. Troutman, J. William Tunks, Richard R. Jones, Daniel Z. Torry, and William Walters.

The hosts were the members of the active chapter: Messrs. Leving McCarty, William Smith, Emmott Millward, Arch Bennett, C. Robert Kay, William Richards, William Thompson, Charles Durrett, Edward Bennett, Leonard Broecker, Elbert Bell, William Crutcher, LeRoy Miles, Joe Taylor, Weldon Simpson, J. J. Richardson, Louis Cox, Alec Herrington, Addison Yeaman, Kenneth Cressy, Richard Carran, James Tapscott, William Sandifer, Ted Hardwick, and James Barnhill, and the pledges, Messrs: Fred Gross and Ranson Spiller.

Tri Delt Banquet

Founder's day in the Delta Rho chapter of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity was observed with a banquet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the Lafayette hotel.

The decorations were of pine, as the pine tree is the fraternity emblem, and silver, gold and blue streamers, the fraternity colors. Miss Ruth Kehoe, president of the chapter, presided as toastmistress and a number of sparkling responses were made by members of the active chapter and alumnae.

The presenting of the annual gift to the pledge of last semester, now one of the active members of the chapter, as best representative of the fraternity ideals and spirit was an interesting part of the program. Miss Amelia P. King was the winner, receiving an attractive Delta Delta Delta bracelet. Miss Helen Board, who won the gift in 1925, made the award.

Among those present for the affair were: Misses Ruth Kehoe, Carolyn Averill, Margaret Averill, Martha B. Edelen, Bernice Edwards, Amelia P. King, Minerva Lampert, Nancy Jones, Margaret Jones, Gladys Smith, Alice Young, Billy Whitlow, Betsy Worth, Frances Summers, Hazel Champ, Lucille Robb, Virginia Reeves, Katherine McWilliams, Emma Kelley, Helen Board, Jean Todd, Evelyn Wright, Dorothy Baker, Marie Beckner, Ruth McCord, Helen Sampson, Frances Maltby, Lucille Cook, Magdalene Rogers, Lucille Howard, Elizabeth Gaitskill, Elizabeth Lilliston, Helen Ralston and Mabel C. Graham.

Piano Recital

A beautiful piano recital was given Friday evening, March 12, in the auditorium of the Lexington College of Music by Miss Beulah Mae Stillwell, of the faculty of the Lexington College of Music, assisted by Samuel Adams, tenor.

Miss Stillwell is well known in Lexington, her home, but this is the first time that she has been heard in a recital since a year's study and graduation at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, where her piano work was done under the direction of Mme. M. Melville Liszniewska, artist teacher.

The program, played entirely from memory, was a very exciting one, including: Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue, by Bach, Ballade in G Minor by Chopin, the two pieces Prelude and Study, from "Children's Corner," by Debussy, Etude in D flat major and Arage by Liszt, and the entire Sonata in F Minor, Op 5 by Brahms.

This is said to be the first time that this Sonata has ever been given in a public recital in Lexington and Miss Stillwell gave it a masterly reading.

In the various compositions, Miss Stillwell displayed unusual skill and musicianship. Her touch is brilliant and elastic, her phrasing clean and her interpretation forceful.

Turner-Black Wedding

The wedding of Miss Rebecca Turner and Maurice Black was solemnized Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the Reverend Massie, at Nicholasville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, of Waller avenue. She is a popular member of the freshman class and has won a number of honors during her short stay at the university. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. M. Black, of Barbourville, Ky., was graduated from the university last June. He was prominent scholastically and in social circles on the campus and is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Mr. Black has accepted a position at Knoxville, Tenn., and the young couple intend to make their home in this city.

PERSONAL

Dean and Mrs. C. R. Melcher were hosts on Sunday morning at 12 o'clock at a lovely breakfast complementing their guest, Dr. James Henry Hamilton, of Greensburg, Ind., noted lecturer and writer.

Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta entertained Mrs. Lottie Belle Crow Porter, of Mu chapter, Brannan College, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock with a dinner at the Phoenix hotel.

SLICKERSOL
It's Collegiate

This is the newest thing in college "circles" girls.—It is the "SLICKERSOL" umbrella, in color and material a reproduction of your own slicker.—

The "SLICKERSOL" is shorter than the usual umbrella, therefore it holds an ad'ral attraction for it may be tucked away in your trunk when vacation time comes, without the worry which usually accompanies excess luggage.

HAND PAINTED AND IN SOLID COLORS, THE NEW "SLICKERSOL" IS A BRIGHT NEW FEATURE FOR A RAINY DAY—IT IS VERY COLLEGIATE.
