

JOHN MILTON FOSTER, B.M.E.

Alpha Tau Omega.

"Nobody's business, nobody's business,
Nobody's business but his own."

"Jabus Stuby" is one of the 1910 stragglers. His short stature and sunny disposition make him a general favorite of the Class. He is a charter-member of the Tape Worm Organization and frequently joins in with them on a serenade; but since he was accidentally (?) scalded one night at "Pat Hall," he has made his visits far and wide between. He has a mania for red lanterns, and has quite a large collection of them. "Johny" ought to make a successful engineer, as he has spent several years in preparation.

"Blow, winds, blow, set the bluff words flying."

Paul Francis, whose most familiar appellation is that of father, upon arriving at the University was first seized by Professor Walter K., and as a result was put into the prep, but on account of throwing shot was let out after the required number of years. His favorite pastime for the last three years has been that of heart-smashing, in which he is very proficient, having succeeded in completely demolishing one. He is quite a cornetist and singer, and enjoys telling "Mac" Cleveland his stunts performed before the Virtuoso Club of Boston, when Mac is working out an intricate formula in steam engine.

WALTER HARN, B.C.E.
Lexington, Ky.

- (I.) B. C. E. S.
- (IV.) Editor-in-Chief Transit.

"Bluff, bluff, nothing but bluff."

Walter blew into the prep some six or seven years ago from some unknown source, and at once succeeded in getting his bluff in on "She Pat." Don't believe in studying or going to class more than once a week. Has the bluff on every professor in the University, but he had to make a special trip from Canada to get out of Physics. He delights in talking of himself and can tell many interesting stories of the exploits of Mr. Harn. Has a very serious effeminate weakness and has been engaged so many times he can't recall them all. To sum up, he is a pretty good fellow with the proper mixture of bluff and ability to make good. His favorite stunt is to wear a new ring each day.

"Every little jewel has a meaning all its own:
Every new engagement by a new ring can be shown."
