

Within a relatively short distance from Lexington are Frankfort, the Capital City, with its many historical features; Herrington Lake; Shakertown; Fort Harrod and its adjacent Pioneer Cemetery; the Old Kentucky Home; the Palisades of the Kentucky River; and many other points of historical and scenic interest.

STUDENT UNION BUILDING

The Union Building is the center of student activity on the campus. Various rooms are available for the enjoyment of students during leisure hours. One may meet friends or read leading magazines and newspapers in the Great Hall; engage in pool, billiards, or pingpong in the Game Room; play cards, checkers, or chess in the Social Room; and hear the works of great composers in the Music Room.

For the convenience of students, the building maintains an information desk, telegraph and telephone service, a modern barber shop and beauty salon, a newly decorated cafeteria serving foods of quality, an attractive soda grill, conference rooms and comfortable lounges.

The Student Union Board is eager for all University students to take advantage of the services and facilities of the building.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

There is a constantly growing demand for the services of the graduates of the University of Kentucky. Placement services are maintained by several colleges on the campus and every attempt is made to procure for the students and for the graduates of the University the type of employment which will enable each one to achieve the best results.

In the College of Commerce is the Senior-Commerce Employment Association which is self-supporting and is headed by a permanent secretary. The Association has been very successful in placing graduates with nationally operating industrial concerns, credit investigating and reporting companies, wholesale houses, banks, insurance companies, chain store companies, governmental agencies both federal and state, and in teaching positions. These positions included secretarial work, accounting, advertising, selling, personnel, and statistical work.

The Teacher Placement Bureau of the College of Education is designed particularly to assist in the placement of superintendents, principals, and teachers. Each student in attendance at the University who desires a teaching position should register with the Placement Bureau, Room 115, Education Building. Superintendents and college administrators who desire capable teachers should write directly to the bureau for recommendations and credentials.

The College of Engineering has an enviable reputation for
