LEADER IN FIGHT FOR UNIVERSITY

Sen. J. W. Stoll Fayette Chairman of Bond Issue

Senator J. Will Stoll, president of the First and City National Bank, Lexington, has always been a most loyal supporter of the university. He fought for its needs in the Kentucky legislature and has gone to the front for it many times when it has gotten into hard straits.

Recently he was elected Chairman of Fayette county committee for the $75,000,000 bond issue and has been able to surround himself with such an able group of workers that there is no doubt about the success of the measure in his county.

Through his efforts the business men of Lexington have been shown the value of this plan and realize that it is the only sane way to meet the needs of the university and the other institutions of the state. He threw the spotlight on the Pay-As-You-Go plan, which is now the semblance of a shadow so far as the merchants and business men of Lexington are concerned.

LOST—TWO OPPORTUNITIES

The group listed below missed their chance to form part of the bunch who attended the Centre-West Virginia game at the Polo Grounds, October 25, and also the first regular luncheon of the season on October 28, because mail addressed as given below was returned marked "not found" or "moved—left no address." If any of them see this issue of the Kernel, or if any of their friends see this and know of later addresses, they are urged to notify W. C. Wilson, Alumni Secretary, and Robert L. Acker, 11 Lyon Place, White Plains, N. Y., Secretary of New York Club, at once, so the second notice can be properly directed.

Arthur R. Bennett, 133 E. 121st St. Robert C. Kay, 50 W. 34th St. James A. C. Lewis, 32 E. 58th St. Samuel H. Ridgway, 78 Court St., Apt. 21. Anna B. Sprague, Morris Hall, Columbia Univ. Mark K. Venable, 106 Morningside Drive, Apt. 66. Mamie M. Woods, 1511 E. 26th St. Sincerely yours,

Robert L. Acker, Secretary, New York Alumni Club. Since the list of names were sent to the secretary of the New York Alumni Club, the following new addresses have been received:

Robert C. Kay, National Industrial Conference Board, Park Ave., at 46th St., N. Y. C. Samuel H. Ridgway, Shepardsville, Ky. Mary K. Venable, 613 Second Ave., St. Cloud, Minn. Mamie M. Woods, 45 Mentelle Park, Lexington.

FURTHER COMMENT ON THE BUFFALO CLUB MEETING

We had our October meeting last Saturday and although the weather was so fine that some of the boys couldn't break their golfing dates, still we had a turn-out of twenty members. This is not as good a crowd as we generally have, but as soon as the snow flies we expect to hit around 90 per cent. every meeting. We also expect to have every man here a member of the Alumni Association. Those who are now missing will be sent in as soon as possible.

Yours truly, Herman Worsham, Treasurer, Buffalo Club.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IS TO MEET

The executive committee of the Alumni Association will hold a meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in room 701, Guaranty Bank Bldg., Lexington.

The members of this committee are:

Wayland Rhoads, Experiment Station, Lexington.

Wm. Townsend, 605 City Bank Bldg., Lexington.

Dr. Geo. H. Wilson, 183 N. Upper street, Lexington.

J. Frank Battaile, 427 W. Second street, Lexington.

W. D. Hamilton, 412 Security Trust Bldg., Lexington.

It is expected that C. C. Calhoun and W. C. Wilson, ex-officio members of this committee and president and secretary, respectively, of the Alumni Association, will also be present.

STUDENT SPEAKERS BUREAU ENDORSED

The following letter has been received by Robert L. Porter, organizer and first president of the Student Speakers Bureau from Herbert Graham, former secretary of the Alumni Association, and now editor of the Scottish American, New York City:

"My dear Porter:

"I am proud indeed to receive today from the president's office your very clear and forceful exposition of the 'University of Kentucky and the Bond Issue.'

"This alone would justify all the work done for the Speakers Bureau and the fine research carried on there. Without your enthusiasm this bureau would not have been established yet and I think it is now one of the university's finest assets.

"Best wishes for you, old man."

Miss Elizabeth Irene Evans was married to Eugene Gorham, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Boswell Gorham of Lexington, October 21 at "Winton," the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Howard Evans. Mr. and Mrs. Gorham left by train for Kansas City, where they will visit Mrs. Gorham's brother, Lynn B. Evans. From Kansas City they will motor to Colorado. Upon their return, they will live on Mr. Gorham's farm, "Forest Home," on the Newton pike, which adjoins "Winton," and will be at home to their friends about November 1.

Fred K. Augsburg will leave Lexington November 3 for Barboursville, where he will become editor of the Barboursville Mountain Advocate, the only newspaper in Knox county. Mr. Augsburg was on the Lexington Herald staff for several years, and for the past three years he has been secretary of the Lexington Auto Club. The Herald says of him: "He is well known in Lexington and his newspaper activity in the mounta in is expected to be of the progressive type."

'22 "I am enclosing check for my alumni dues. Sorry to have waited so long.

"I have been with the Northwestern Mutual since July, 1922, and have no room to kick, as I have been able to 'take unto myself a wife,' as the old saying goes. We were in Lexington for the Louisville-State game and are looking forward to seeing "Old State" beat Centre, November 1.

NOTICE TO LAW ALUMNI

Sufficient money for final payment on the Dean Lafferty portrait for the College of Law has not yet been subscribed. Checks may be sent to W. S. Hamilton, '07, 707 Marion E. Taylor Building, Louisville, Ky.

"There are four State men here in our office, and I am always running into someone from the old school, so we can't very well forget those associations that we look back on so often.

"Elizabeth and I are always glad to get back to Lexington and we are wishing you all, all kinds of good luck. Sincerely, R. F. Bamber."

"Elizabeth" was formerly Miss Elizabeth Marshall Allen, '23, of Maysville. They live at 2115 Grinstead Drive, Louisville. Mr. Bamber has offices at 1301 Starks Buildings.

Together with Gilmore Bobbott's check to cover alumni dues, and request for reservations for the Centre game, came the advice that he is now at Hazard. He is an engineer there, and his address is Box 634

'23 Miss Irene McNamara, editor-in-chief of the Kentucky Kernel, 1922-'23, is an instructor in journalism at the University of Kentucky this year. Miss McNamara is also on the staff of the Lexington Herald.

Miss Sarah Blanding, dean of women at the university, was elected vice-president of the Association of Kentucky Deans of Women, which held its annual convention at the University of Kentucky this week.

O. W. Cain was unanimously selected by the County Committee recently as G. O. P. Campaign Chairman for Johnson county. He will be in charge of Republican headquarters, and M. O. Wheeler, county chairman, says that he has talked to a large number of Republicans since the committee met and finds them unanimous in their approval of the new campaign managers and hearty support is promised.

In a letter from Mr. Cain he says, "and am also an advocate of the bond issue."

Mr. Cain is an attorney-at-law, with offices in the Bayes Building, Paintsville, Ky. He received his LL.B. in '24.

F. A. C. Thompson was a visitor in the Alumni Office this week. He is with the Kentucky Light and Power Company at Fulton, Ky. He will be among the many alumni cheering the 'cats tomorrow.

'24 Mack J. Morgan writes to change his address to the "Superintendent, House of Reform, Greendale, Ky."

Mr. Morgan graduated from Berea college in 1916. He taught one year at the Farm School in Asheville, N. C., and one year at Berea. He was in the army and was superintendent of the schools at the Kentucky State Reformatory at Frankfort, from Jan. 1922 until recently. Mr. Morgan graduated from the Law College of the university in June, 1924, and took the state bar examination, in April, making a very high average grade. He is now General Superintendent of the Kentucky House of Reform, Greendale, Ky.

"Please enter me on the roll of alumni and change my address from Spottsville, R. R. 1, to Liberty, Ky. Also send me the Kernel for the year as I don't feel that I can be true to my Alma Mater and not keep up with her progress. I am principal and teacher in the Casey county high school here with fifty-eight in high school and 175 in the grades.

"Enclosed find check for two dollars to cover this. Please advise if this is right and I will correct it if not enough.

"All together to beat old Centre and dedicate the new stadium in a fitting manner.

James H. Williams, ex-"The following has been received from Douglas C. Vest, 44 Follou street, Cambridge, Mass.: "Enclosed please find my check for $2 for a year's subscription to the Kernel. I am in the Harvard Law School, and am anxious to keep in touch with all that goes on at 'State.'"

Miss Margaret McCubbing, ex-, is principal of the Picadome School, which is about two miles from Lexington on the Harrodsburg pike. This is one of Fayette county's most progressive schools.

The senior class will erect a bronze tablet at the entrance of section O, on the south side of the stadium, in memory of Price McLean, star center of the Wildcat football team of '23, who gave his life for his Alma Mater on November 7, 1923. His death was the result of a blow received on the head during the third quarter of the Cincinnati-Kentucky clash at Cincinnati on November 6.

James Darnell will make the oration in connection with the unveiling of the tablet between halves of the State-Centre game tomorrow.

The wording of the tablet is as follows: "In Honor of Price Innes McLean Jan. 13, 1901 Nov. 7, 1923 Who died of injuries received in Cincinnati-Kentucky Football Game This Tablet Erected by Class of 1925"

NOTICE—Those men who are to usher and guard at the Centre game tomorrow afternoon are requested to report for duty on Stoll field at 12:30.
