

SOCIETY NOTES

CALENDAR

Saturday, February 26
Alpha Tau Omega Founder's Day banquet in the ballroom of the Phoenix hotel at 6:30 o'clock.

chapter of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and the Northern and Southern delegates who attended the conference held here last week, were present at a banquet at the Phoenix hotel Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Delta Tau Delta Banquet
The members of the university

R.O.T.C.

Uniforms
Cleaned and Pressed

Coats and Trousers Cleaned and Pressed $1.25

Cap Cleaned
25c

Leggings Cleaned and Pressed
25c

Shirts Cleaned and Pressed
25c

Uniforms Pressed 35c

PHONE 621

BECKER

"Cleaners That Satisfy"
212 S. Limestone
Phone 621

STRAND

SUNDAY

CLARA BOW
in Elinor Glyn's
"IT"

Antonio Moreno
Co-Stars With Clara
In a Picture That's a Positive Knockout
IT'S A PEPPY SHOW
—See "IT"

D. T. D. Domain—President Duerr, Chi.

Dixie Deltas—Hon. Alben W. Barkley, Beta Epsilon; Willis Stewart, Lambda.

Dad's Delt Deliveries, Clarence Pumphrey, Eta.

Dubious Divine Deltas—Rev. William S. Blackshear, Gamma Iota.

Delt Dribblings—Robert Heuck.
Delt Ditties—Neil Sullivan, Delta Epsilon.

Delt Dingles—Russell Gleason, Gamma Lambda.

The banquet ended in the traditional
"Delt Walk Around."

Dantzler Tea
Mrs. L. L. Dantzler, chairman of the department of music, of the Woman's Club of Central Kentucky, entertained with an informal tea Saturday afternoon at the Chimney Corner, to meet Mr. Sylvio Scionti Italian, Italian pianist, who presented the program at the Woman's Club just before the tea.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting
Last Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock Theta Sigma Phi conducted a "Friendship" program in the reading room of Boyd hall for the members of Y. W.
C. A.

Talks on friendship were given by Miss Willie King, who was in charge of the evening's program, Miss Lydia Fremd, and Miss Lucille Cook. Miss Virginia Boyd entertained with several piano solos.

The benediction, closing the exercises, was said by Miss King.

Afternoon Tea
Mr. Carol Sax entertained with a tea in honor of Mr. John Gould Fletcher, of London, England, last Sunday afternoon in the private dining room of the Phoenix hotel at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Fletcher is an American poet of renown. At the present time he is on a lecture tour of the United States, presenting lectures on modern poetry and selections from his own writings.

McVey Tea
Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey entertained with a tea at their home at Maxwell Place last Wednesday afternoon for the students and faculty of the University of Kentucky.

Delta Tau Delta Formal Delta Epsilon chapter of Delta Tau Delta fraternity entertained brilliantly with their formal dance Saturday evening from 8:30 until 12 o'clock in the men's gymnasium. The honor guests at the dance were the delegates attending the Northern-Southern Division conference.

The elaborate decorations were of crepe paper streamers in the fraternity colors of purple, white and gold.
The streamers formed an arch from which hung bunches of balloons filled with confetti.

The Confederate flag placed at one end of the hall and the Union flag at the other, were an additional compliment to the Conference guests.

Dainty programs in purple and white, containing the three no-break dances were given as souvenirs. Music was furnished by the Parisian Red-Heads orchestra of Indianapolis.

The hosts, the active chapter were Messrs. M. H. Crowder, W. D. De-Haven, Warren Price, Sterling Kerns, C. R. Jones, Carol Fortson, E. E. Ericson, Robert O'Dear, Louis Wachs, M.
Crowder, John D. Nantz, W. R. For-guson, John R. Bullock, Kenneth Kohlstaedt, Arnold Combs, Roy Eversole, Roy Kavanagh, James Shropshire, Howell Davis, Finley Davis, William Patterson, Ollie Williamson, William Reep, Kenneth Baker, Bruce King, Penrose Ecton.

The pledges: Messrs. Len Weakley, Carlos Jagoe, Walter Vest, James Hutchinson, Robert Hutchinson, James Chapman, Nando Kelley, Paul Averett, Milford Noe, Lawrence Shropshire, Charles Blackshear, Lawton Daly, W. P. Fowler, John Benson.

Honor guests were delegates from the northern and southern divisions, who attended the combined conference here.

University Club Meets
The Woman's Club of the University of Kentucky met last Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Patterson hall. A very attractive program was presented by the art committee of which Mrs. E. F. Farquhar is the chairman. A short talk on "A Bird's Eye View of Spain" was given by Mrs.
Alfred Zembrod. This was especially interesting as Mrs. Zembrod has traveled extensively in Spain, and all her material was gained by experience.

An exhibition of Spanish laces, embroidered shawls and hand colored prints, which were for sale, was shown at the meeting.

Mrs. C. R. Melcher, the president presided at the brief business session. The hostesses for the tea, which closed the program, was Mrs. C. S.
Crouse, chairman; Mrs. S. E. Leland, Mrs. L. B. McMullen, Mrs. A. Van-denbosch, Mrs. J. W. Whitehouse, Mrs. L. A. Piper, Mrs. E. L. Gillis, Mrs. W. W. McGill, Mrs. E. L. Rees,
Mrs. B. B. McInteer and Mrs. Wellington Patrick.

Study Circle Meets
The study circle of the American Association of University Women met on Monday afternoon at 4 p. m., with Mrs. Wayland Rhoads at her home, 1435 South Limestone. Prof. Clay C. Ross, of the university, led the discussion.

Fraternity Luncheon
Members of the Arch Chapter of Delta Tau Delta and other members of the fraternity, were the guests of Messrs. W. E. Davis and Willis Stewart, art, for luncheon at the Phoenix hotel Saturday at 12:30 o'clock.

Alliance Meeting
Mrs. Bedford Brown and Mrs. Bullitt McCoun were hostesses Saturday at the home of Mrs. Brown, on South Hanover avenue, for the Delta Delta Delta Alliance monthly meeting and luncheon.

Gilmour—Cammack
The following announcements have been received here:
Mr. and Mrs. John Gilmour announce the marriage of their daughter
Sarah
to

Spring flowers, pink sweet peas, tulips and pink candles in silver holders were the charming decorations.
Sixteen guests were present for the luncheon.

Catholic Club Meets
The Catholic club of the university
met in the palmroom of the Phoenix hotel at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. Elwood Schulte presided at the meeting and the Reverend Father Punch delivered a short talk to the members.

Fraternity Supper
The Sigma Nu fraternity entertained Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at their chapter house on Winslow street, with a dinner in honor of the members of the fraternity who reside in Lexington.

Council to Meet
The regular meeting of the university council will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of the president.

Star and Triangle Club Initiates
The Star and Triangle club of the university held its initiation services
Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Boyd Hall.

Those who were initiated into the club were: Misses Ellen Bell, Claudia Payne, Bess Ross, Mary Anna Ray,
Mrs. N. T. Hook and Mrs. Susan Kidd Slaughter.

Following the initiation, refreshments of brick cream and cake were served.

Military Ball
One of the most impressive and beautiful dances of the school year was the Military Ball which took place Monday evening from 9 until 1 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

The decorations, carrying out the military effect, were of red, white and blue crepe paper streamers with draped flags and machine guns placed in various parts of the room.

The programs were white booklets tied with blue ribbons containing six
"no-break" dances and an extra one for the active members and the

Know Your Faculty

Charles Joseph Turk, dean of the College of Law, is the youngest member of the faculty to hold such an important office. He was born in 1890 at New Orleans, La., where he received his early education. In 1911 he was graduated from the College of Arts and Sciences of Tulane University, where he was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary Arts and Sciences fraternity. In 1912 he received the Master of Arts degree from Columbia University and the next year the LL. B. degree from the same institution.

Following graduation from Columbia, Dean Turk practiced law in New York City with the firm of Lord, Day and Lord until 1916, when he became Professor of Law at the Tulane University Law School. In 1919 he was educational director of the War Work Council of the Y.M.C.A. at Pansacola, Fla., and Paris Island, S. C., and was associated with Isaac Heller as counsel at law in New Orleans, La. The next year, Dean Turk accepted the position of Professor of Law and secretary of the Law School of Vanderbilt University.

In 1924, Dean Turk came to the University of Kentucky as Dean of the College of Law. He is a prominent and popular member of the university faculty, and it is under his guidance that the Henry Clay Law Society has progressed so favorably this year.

Dean Turk is the author of various articles which have been published from time to time in the American Law Review and in the Kentucky Law Journal. He is a member of the American Bar Association and of the Kentucky Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi, honorary law fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Nu, Rotary Club and is director of the Lexington Automobile Club for the ensuing year.

Mr. James William Cammack, Jr.
on Thursday, February the seventeenth, Nineteen hundred and twenty-seven Owensboro, Kentucky
At Home

After the first of March Shelbyville, Kentucky
Mr. Cammack, who formerly attended the university of Kentucky, was a well-known football player in 1925.
He is the grandson of Mr. Elijah Allen, of Owenton, and teaches and is athletic coach of the Shelbyville high school.

The Catholic club of the university
met in the palmroom of the Phoenix
hotel at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. Elwood Schulte presided at the meeting and the Reverend Father Punch delivered a short talk to the members.

Fraternity Supper
The Sigma Nu fraternity entertained Wednesday evening at 7:30
o'clock at their chapter house on Wins-
low street, with a dinner in honor
of the members of the fraternity who
reside in Lexington.

Council to Meet
The regular meeting of the university council will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of the president.

Star and Triangle Club Initiates
The Star and Triangle club of the
university held its initiation services
Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Boyd
Hall.

Those who were initiated into the
club were: Misses Ellen Bell, Claudia
Payne, Bess Ross, Mary Anna Ray,
Mrs. N. T. Hook and Mrs. Susan Kidd
Slaughter.

Following the initiation, refreshments of brick cream and cake were served.

Military Ball
One of the most impressive and
beautiful dances of the school year
was the Military Ball which took place Monday evening from 9 until 1 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

The decorations, carrying out the
military effect, were of red, white and
blue crepe paper streamers with
draped flags and machine guns placed
in various parts of the room.

The programs were white booklets
tied with blue ribbons containing six
"no-break" dances and an extra one
for the active members and the pledges of Scabbard and Blade.

The Red Greenland orchestra of Cincinnati and the Rhythm Kings furnished music for the delightful occasion.

Between the third and fourth no-breaks, the grand march, led by Cadet Colonel John Rachal and Miss Betty Reganstein, took place.

Following this, the Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, held pledging exercises for the following men: Messrs. LeRoy Miles, J. J.
Richardson, Waller Jones, Stanley Stagg, A. H. Stephenson, William Maschmeyer, William Crutcher and Hunter Moody.

The closing number of the dance was the playing of the Star Spangled Banner in which all stood at attention.

The official chaperones were President and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Colonel and Mrs. Horace P. Hobbs and the other officers of the military department and their wives.

FRATERNITY ROW

The Alumnae members of Kappa Delta sorority will entertain with a benefit bridge Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock at the Phoenix hotel.

Mr. Ben Polsgrove, of Louisville, and Mr. Neville Sencille, of Frankfort, visited at the Kappa Sigma house last week-end.

Work on Questionnaire

The questionnaire committee of the Omicon Delta Kappa, honorary campus leaders' fraternity, met Tuesday afternoon for consideration of the questionnaire which it expects to present to the student body soon. It is desired to get the opinion of the student body on certain important campus problems.

The members of the committee are:
Watson Armstrong, Earl Sherwood,
Frank Brown, Charles Heidrick,
Grant Willey, and Doctor Funkhouser
advisor.

The date for distribution of the questionnaire was not announced.

EXCHANGE NOTES

Redlands University—Co-eds object to the proposal that all dates be on a 50-50 basis. They say that "the woman pays for the date in listening to the boresome 'line' she receives from the campus 'she-men'."

Carbondale, Ill.—Students must sign pledge not to use tobacco or liquor on entering the new college being formed here. Dances, fraternities, intercollegiate athletics, and student government also are prohibited.

Charles G. Dawes, vice-president of the United States, has donated $15,000
to the Walber Hines Page School of International Relations at John Hopkins. This sum was Dawes' portion of the 1925 Nobel Peace prize.

Under the auspices of the German
Students' Co-operative Association,

Committee of Omicon Delta Kappa Considers Plans

The questionnaire committee of the Omicon Delta Kappa, honorary campus leaders' fraternity, met Tuesday
afternoon for consideration of the
questionnaire which it expects to pre-
sent to the student body soon. It is desired to get the opinion of the student body on certain important campus problems.

The members of the committee are:
Watson Armstrong, Earl Sherwood,
Frank Brown, Charles Heidrick,
Grant Willey, and Doctor Funkhouser
advisor.

The date for distribution of the
questionnaire was not announced.

EXCHANGE NOTES

Redlands University—Co-eds object
to the proposal that all dates be on
a 50-50 basis. They say that "the woman pays for the date in listening
to the boresome 'line' she receives
from the campus 'she-men'."

Carbondale, Ill.—Students must
sign pledge not to use tobacco or liquor on entering the new college being formed here. Dances, fraternities,
intercollegiate athletics, and student
government also are prohibited.

Charles G. Dawes, vice-president of the United States, has donated $15,000
to the Walber Hines Page School
of International Relations at John Hopkins. This sum was Dawes' portion of the 1925 Nobel Peace prize.

Under the auspices of the German
Students' Co-operative Association,

one hundred German students are coming to America to work in laboratories, factories and on farms.

Each year the managements of two theaters in the town offer a free show to the students and faculty of South Dakota State College as an appreciation of their patronage during the school year.

Steamship Tickets
VIA ALL LINES AND TO ALL PARTS OF
THE WORLD

Student Tours To Europe
$255 to $725

PRICES INCLUDE — Round Trip Ocean Fare, Hotels, Meals, Railroad Fares in Europe, Guides, Museum Entrance Fees;
all Expenses.

Information Without Obligation

James M. Molloy
Authorized Steamship Agent
646 E. High St. Phone 3561
Lexington, Kentucky

Specializing in CO-ED DRESSES
Of Particular Appeal to the College Miss
"BETTER VALUES FOR LESS"
B. B. SMITH & CO.
264 West Main Street

ANNOUNCING
THE ARRIVAL OF THE
New Florsheims
For Spring
Baynham Shoe Co.
EAST MAIN—NEAR LIME

"Thorpe's"
We Know It!
When we recommend Knapp-Felt headwear we are speaking from wide acquaintance with this splendid merchandise. For seventy-five years the trade mark has represented correct style and honest craftsmanship, and well dressed men throughout America have learned to depend on it.
R. S. Thorpe & Sons
—Incorporated—
MAIN and MILL STREETS
"THE MEN'S STORE OF LEXINGTON"

MILES SILK EVENT OF
THE SPRING SEASON
Opening Monday, February 28th
Crisp—Fresh—New Spring Silks Bought Under Unusual Market Conditions Which Makes Possible This Astounding Offering. Values to $3.50 and $4.00 a yard.
Thousands of Yards at the One Price
$1.89 yard
MILES SILK SHOP, Inc.
Full Announcement in the Sunday Papers

LANG
ROCK
—America's Smartest College Clothes