

Whether the Convention was a success from a business point of view, as well as pleasure, all those who visited Louisville can best answer.

The State headquarters are now located in Louisville. The following are the present State Officers:
 E. L. KERLEY, President, Bowling Green.

W. H. BRIZENDINE, Third Vice-President, Mayfield.
 F. E. LACK, Fourth Vice-President, Paducah.
 L. H. DAVIS, Fifth Vice-President, Hopkinsville.
 Directors:
 B. J. JANSING, Louisville.
 J. J. BLUM, Louisville.

STATE OFFICERS, KENTUCKY DIVISION

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. LUTHER R. STEIN,State Director, Louisville.                       | 6. E. L. KERLEY,State President, Bowling Green.           |
| 2. B. J. JANSING,State Director, Louisville.                         | 7. A. R. GROUSE,State Director, Paducah.                  |
| 3. W. C. SUMPTER,State Director, President Post 1, BowlingGreen. | 8. B. A. EVANS,Chairman State Board Directors, Owensboro. |
| 4. J. J. BLUM,State Director, Louisville.                            | 9. REV. R. H. McCASLIN,State Chaplain, Bowling Green.     |
| 5. CARL H. FINCK,State Secretary and Treasurer, Louisville.          | 10. X. WILSON,State Director, Mayfield.                   |

CARL H. FINCK, Sec'y-Treas., Louisville.
 DR. THOS. K. VAN ZANDT, Surgeon, Louisville.
 REV. R. H. McCASLIN, Chaplain, Bowling Green.
 CHAS. S. DARNABY, First Vice-President, Lexington.
 C. I. CARRICO, Second Vice-President, Owensboro.

LUTHER R. STEIN, Louisville.
 A. R. GROUSE, Paducah.
 X. WILSON, Mayfield.
 JEFF T. HUKLE, Lexington.
 J. K. LOCKETT, Henderson.