

The following paragraphs from the "Regulations" are added for the benefit of intending matriculates:

Admission of Students.

24. By the acts of the Legislature each legislative Representative District is entitled to send, on competitive examination, one properly prepared student each year, between the ages of twelve and twenty-five, to the College, free of tuition. The candidate presenting himself at the College for admission under this authority shall deliver to the President a certificate from his district Board of Examination setting forth "that the Board was duly appointed by 'the court of claims,' as prescribed in the charter of the College, approved March 4th, 1880; that he is between the ages of twelve and twenty-five, and that he has been selected on competitive examination from all of the students (of whom there shall not be more than one from each common school), sent before the Board by the trustees and teachers of the several common schools in the district." The candidate shall then be examined by the Faculty, or a committee appointed by it, and must pass a satisfactory examination in Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, and Geography, in order to be admitted as a "properly prepared" student in the meaning of the act of the Legislature.

25. The charter of the College also provides "that teachers or persons preparing to teach may be admitted free of tuition charge for one year, at the rate of not more than four, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for each Legislative Representative District." A person desiring admission under this provision must present to the President a certificate from the School Commissioner of his county, or from some other satisfactory source, setting forth "that the applicant is a citizen of the county from which admission is claimed, and that he is a teacher, or is preparing to teach."

26. The charter also provides "that other students, without regard to place of residence or birth, may also be admit-
