

the first of August. Varieties: Early; White Plume, Late; Winter Queen and Giant Pascal. Winter Queen is an exceptionally fine variety and seems to thrive in this locality.

PARSLEY. Sow March 1st. Varieties: Champion Moss Curled.

TOMATOES. Sow March 1st in the hot bed for early crop and about first week in April for main crop. Varieties: Early; June Pink, Dwarf Champion, Sparks' Earliana, Chalk's Early Jewel; midseason and late; Matchless, Buck-eye State, Stone and Ponderosa.

BEETS. Sow March 1st. Varieties: Crosby's Egyptian, Detroit Dark Red, Half Long Blood and Extra Early Eclipse.

CARROTS. Sow March 1st. Varieties: Chantenay, Early Scarlet Horn.

PEPPERS. Sow March 15th in the hot bed. Peppers require a temperature of about sixty-five degrees. May be transplanted about second week in May. Varieties: Sweet; Ruby King, Bell and Sweet Spanish; Hot: Long Red Cayenne.

RADISHES. May be grown the year round if desired. A fall crop may be sown in October, and this harvested from Thanksgiving time until after Christmas. Varieties: Scarlet Globe, French Breakfast and Icicle.