

DEFEND THE

RUSSIA

He tells me that when the time comes I shouldn't take up arms against the Soviet Union, but that I should fight in defense of it, and by doing so help to build a stronger working class movement in America.

Gee! and I didn't know that! I realize I am a member of a certain class—the working class. I realize that I must fight with my class for freedom. I determine to learn HOW to fight.
